

---

Backwards outlining consists of taking a piece of writing and creating an outline based on the existing structure of the draft to compare against and/or help create the thesis of a paper. The outline is created by taking each body paragraph, identifying what it contributes to

Example:

Thesis statement: The aerobics craze of the 1980's oppressed women by forcing them to 7.